Welcome to the United States Capitol

To ensure a safe and enjoyable visit, note the following:

- This free pass is required for entry into the Capitol and is valid only for the date and time printed on the front. Please note your arrival time, and report promptly to the tour staging area as passes cannot be honored after this time.
- Some items are prohibited from the Capitol. Review all posted signs prior to your tour.
- Separate gallery passes from the office of a Member of Congress are required to visit the Senate and the House of Representatives while in session. International visitors may obtain passes with a photo ID.

Questions or concerns, please see Guide Service Personnel.
